Chapter 1 by Jill's-Story

Jill an average 15 year old but in 7th grade because of the many times she has moved, she now lives in the town of Houston, TX. Jill went to school saw her friend Haley and talked to her about this sick feeling in her stomach , they keep talking until the school bell went there separate ways. Jill went to her first class Math, then Language Arts, after she did those two class she had lunch. Jill ate lunch and went to Science, History, and Reading. She waited to talk to Haley before she took the bus home, she Haley and was calling her name when Haley finally heard her she had this sickening look on her face. Jill asked what was wrong and Haley said "You have to get home NOW!!" Jill asked why Haley didn't say a word but pointed towards her house. Jill raced home and opened the door and was yelling for her father Jack. She found her little Yorkshire Terrier Olivia, Jill bent down and picked her up and was cooing "Hello there little girl" Jill put her down but when she did she noticed little bloody pawprint she quick look at her hand a saw blood. Jill blood drained out of her face and quickly followed those small bloody paw prints, she found where they ended and was sickened for where it came from. She looked at the body and realized it was her father, there dead on the ground killed by three gunshots two to the heart and one to the head.
